

Brooklyn's Reading Nook

Brooklyn got a new book. For weeks, Brooklyn had been looking for this book in every bookshop. She put it at the top of her list because she was confident that this story would be a good one. Brooklyn loved her reading time on the weekends.

Each Saturday, she was able to sit in her reading nook and dive into a good book. Last weekend, she finished a story of a famed football star. This weekend she would be starting Little Red Riding Hood. But this story is not the classic she remembers from her childhood.

In that book, Little Red Riding Hood is a small child. This modern story is a twisted tale. Little Red Riding Hood is a grown-up when she goes for a walk in the woods. Brooklyn could not wait to pull on her cozy hooded blanket and curl up in her nook with her book.

Roll and Read

Lesson 89: u, oo /oo/

book	bull	rook	bush	cook	put
foot	shook	brook	wood	took	full
hood	pull	nook	push	good	hook
booking	notebook	took	handbook	textbook	stood
footprint	good	wooden	look	pulls	foot
looking	firewood	cooking	football	puts	pushing

The Groom is Late!

The flustered groom rushed into the church. He was very late. Not only was he late, but he had not even finished dressing. He was still pulling on his boots. He ran to his best man and said, “I slept in! My alarm did not go off!”

“Keep your cool! Better late than never,” said the best man. The groom smoothed his shirt as best as he could and finished pulling on his boots. “All set!” said the groom. “Time to see my bride.” Just then, booming music started to play, and the church doors swung open.

The bride was so graceful as she entered the room, she seemed to be floating. As she reached the groom, she whispered, “Better late than never.” The groom blushed and said, “my alarm did not go off!” With a smile, the bride took her groom’s hand and said, “Next time I will put the alarm on for you.”

Roll and Read

Lesson 90: oo /ū/

coo	hoop	coop	droop	boom	fool
food	bloom	oops	loot	moon	broom
hoot	ooze	doom	groom	roof	scoop
boo	cool	moo	pool	book	smooth
drool	proof	boot	room	moose	gloom
spook	zoom	soon	too	troop	tooth

Roll and Read

Lesson 90: oo /ū/ (2 syllables)

bamboo	lunchroom	oozing	scooping	cartoon	raccoon
classroom	proofing	bathroom	blooming	choosing	bedroom
looming	drooping	pooling	booming	toothbrush	moonlight
hooting	booming	cooling	mushroom	rooster	roofing

Cruise Ship Trip

Drew and Marley were thrilled as they walked onto their first cruise ship. They had been packing for this trip for months. Their suitcases were so full they almost did not close. When they got to their cabin, they looked out their window and saw the vast blue sea. It was very pretty!

They left their suitcases in the cabin and went to grab a bite to eat by the pool. Yes, the new cruise ship had a pool! How cool! Drew drank apple juice while Marley chewed on some fruit. They watched the crew greeting everyone as they came onto the ship.

“This is going to be a fantastic trip!” said Marley. “Yes, I think when we get back on Tuesday, I will feel relaxed and renewed!” Drew said as the ship’s horn blew. Honk! Honk! “And off we go!” Marley squealed. It was a dream come true.

Roll and Read

Lesson 91: ew, ui, ue /ū/

brew	blue	grew	fruit	threw	flew
suit	bruise	rue	clue	crew	true
new	due	blew	screw	duel	chew
cruise	dew	glue	dew	stew	sue

Roll and Read

Lesson 91: ew, ui, ue /ū/ (2 syllables)

blueprint	bruises	brewing	grapefruit	Tuesday	subdue
newborn	chewed	fruitcake	pursue	virtue	chewing withdrew	suitcase	Tuesday	jumpsuit	Andrew	Lewis

Classroom Clean Up

Miss Booker had so many things to do. Classes would be starting next week. She wanted the classroom to be perfect for the children's first day!

On Tuesday, she needed to clean the floors and closets. They were filled with dust and grime from the summer months. On Thursday, she would need to unpack all the boxes. The boxes contained her books, games, and puzzles. On Friday, she would decorate the door and create a display in the hallway. She also wanted to put up a new welcome banner.

Then on the weekend, she was going to plan the cool games and projects they would do during their first week. Miss Booker was so excited for her new class!

Roll and Read

Lesson 92: vowel teams review 2 (compound)

bathroom	daylight	classroom	firewood	birthday	footprint
grapefruit	nightfall	highway	classroom	mainland	crossroad
driveway	bedroom	football	notebook	rainbow	suitcase
coastline	lunchroom	newborn	coastline	railroad	blueprint
sixteen	weekend	sleepover	toothbrush	subway	tonight

Roll and Read

Lesson 92: vowel teams review 2 (2 syllables)

between	remain	lightning	detail	repeat	contain
pillow	Thursday	cartoon	Tuesday	remain	detail
delight	reveal	window	between	explain	delight
Sunday	raccoon	display	yellow	pillow	Friday

Trip to the Zoo

Audrey and Willow could not wait to see all the animals at the zoo. As they reached the entrance, Audrey paused and asked, “did you bring the tickets?” “Yes! I have them right here,” said Willow.

The first display they visited was full of birds. “Look at that pretty macaw! Its wings are like a rainbow,” exclaimed Audrey. “I see the macaw,” responded Willow, “but look at this hawk! It caught a fish in its claws.” Willow could have spent hours at the bird display, but Audrey said she wanted to see more animals.

The next display contained a lion sleeping on a large lawn. The lion woke up for five minutes, but then yawned and fell back asleep. “He seems to have day and night mixed up,” snickered Audrey. “Well, it’s not his fault. If I had to hunt for my food, I would want a nap too,” Willow commented. Audrey smirked and said, “That reminds me, I am hungry. Can we go hunt for some food at the snack stand?”

Roll and Read

Lesson 93 : aw /aw/

claw	jaw	raw	dawn	pawn	drawl
flaw	bawl	fawn	slaw	law	yawn
saw	spawn	sprawl	thaw	crawl	saw
draw	paw	hawk	straw	lawn	draw

Roll and Read

Lesson 93: au, aw, augh /aw/ (2 syllables)

August	seesaw	drawing	crawled	drawing	crawling
drawing	causing	launching	pausing	rawhide	seesaw
withdrawn	withdraw	launcher	thawing	August	yawning

Surprise on the Track

“Ready, set, go!” yelled the track coach. The first race of the fourth-grade track meet had begun. Heather had been waiting for this track meet for months. She was ready to win.

At first, Heather took the lead. But, as she sprinted to the finish line, she saw some other fourth graders catching up to her. She did not want to give up her lead. She worked on keeping her breath steady as she ran and leaped over the hurdles.

Heather was almost to the finish line when, all of a sudden, she saw something white wander onto the track. “A swan!” yelled a child in the stands. A swan wandered onto the track from the swamp up the road. The swan began to waddle to the finish line. Heather crossed the finish line at the same exact time as the swan. “So, who won the race?” asked the class. “It’s a tie! Heather and the swan both won!” exclaimed the track coach.

Roll and Read

Lesson 94: ea /ë/, a /ö/

quad	dealt	spread	head	father	breath
bread	squash	swallow	leapt	waddle	swan
squad	lead	swap	squat	heavy	water
swamp	waffle	deaf	want	watch	steady
feather	ready	wash	health	wash	dead